

shall hold office for the term of two years from the date of his election, and in each case] and each shall hold for four years and until his successor shall be elected and qualified. [And at each general election, held, respectively, every second year after the election to be held on the Tuesday next after the first Monday of November in the year nineteen hundred and fifteen, there shall be elected one County Commissioner for the full term of six years to succeed the Commissioner whose term shall then expire, and the person so to be elected shall be selected from the same district as the Commissioner whose term shall so expire, and no two Commissioners from one and the same election district shall hold office as Commissioners in said county at one and the same time. In the event that any vacancy should occur in said Board of Commissioners for any cause, the Governor shall appoint a suitable person to fill such vacancy or vacancies, and the person or persons so appointed shall hold said office for the full term of the person whose office shall have become vacant. The appointee so appointed shall be a resident and voter in the election district wherein the person whose office shall have been vacated resided and voted at the time of his election; and the compensation of the said Commissioner shall be the same as is now provided by Section 15 of Article 25 of the Code of Public General Laws.]

76. The County Commissioners are authorized and directed at their first meeting after their election and qualification, to elect by a majority vote one of their number president [and treasurer], who shall serve until his successor is elected and qualified.

[77. The said president and treasurer shall receive and be responsible for all moneys which shall be paid to the said County Commissioners, and shall keep an accurate account of all receipts and expenditures; and before he acts as such he shall give bond to the State of Maryland in the penalty of ten thousand dollars, with surety to be approved by two judges of the Orphans' Court, or one judge of the Circuit Court for Calvert County, with conditions that he shall well and faithfully execute his office, and shall account for to the County Commissioners of Calvert County, and pay upon their order the several sums of money which he shall receive for the said Commissioners, or be answerable for by law, at such times as the said Commissioners shall require.]

[78. All persons holding orders, checks or drafts drawn by the County Commissioners of Calvert County upon the collectors of county taxes of said county, shall present the same to said County Commissioners during the first five days of their session in April of each year, when they meet to make the annual State and county levy; and it shall be the duty of the County Commissioners to make and preserve a memorandum of the number of each order, check or draft so presented, the amount thereof, the date of its issue, and the person to whom issued; and the County Commissioners are authorized and empowered to levy upon the assessable property of the County a sum of money sufficient to pay the same, provided the funds and solvent tax bills in the hands of the said collectors appear to be insufficient for the purpose.]

[79. The holders of said orders, checks or drafts failing to present the same to the County Commissioners as provided for in the preceding section, shall not be entitled to receive or demand of, or from
