

Commissioners; all books, documents and papers, goods and chattels, accounts and credits, money and deposits belonging to the treasurer's office or in his custody as treasurer shall be delivered up and transferred by him to his successor in office who shall receipt therefor; provided, that the tax levies placed in his hands for collection or so much thereof which shall remain uncollected or unaccounted for by him and for which his bond is responsible shall be retained by him.

[94. It shall be the duty of said treasurer to inform himself by all lawful means of all property, stocks or investments in said county liable to taxation, and not included in the lists furnished him and against which he has not tax bill, and he shall value the same at the full cash value thereof, and collect the taxes therefor as upon other property in the county, and make return thereof to the County Commissioners.]

[95. When land or personal property is in the hands of a trustee for sale or otherwise, whether by virtue of a decree of court of under a deed of trust, and the taxes thereon are in arrears the treasurer may enforce the payment of such taxes in the same manner as if said property were not in the hands of a trustee.]

[96. All orders for the payment of money by the County Commissioners, the Road Commissioners and the School Commissioners, respectively, of Calvert County, when such orders become necessary shall be directed to the Treasurer of Calvert County and shall be honored and paid by him so far as the funds in his hands for the purpose therefor drawn will permit.]

[97. All orders for money drawn by the County Commissioners of Calvert County for outdoor pensioners, shall be paid by the Treasurer of Calvert County in preference to any other claims, so far as the funds in his hands will permit.]

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1963.

Approved February 26, 1963.
