

physical condition of any animal, or who holds himself out at being legally so qualified to do so. This term includes but is not limited to: (1) Any person practicing dentistry or surgery on any animal; (2) any person representing himself as engaged in the practice of veterinary medicine as that term is defined in sub-section (b) herein; and (3) any person who uses any word, letters or titles in such connection and under such circumstances as to induce the belief that a person using them is engaged in the practice of veterinary medicine.

(b) For the purpose of this sub-title, the "practice of veterinary medicine" does not include or apply to (1) licensed veterinarians from other states and not having offices in this State; (2) persons practicing veterinary medicine in the performance of official duties in the service of the United States or of the State of Maryland, civil or military; (3) experimentation and scientific research of biological chemists engaged in the study and development of methods and techniques, directly or indirectly related or applicable to the problems of the practice of veterinary medicine; (4) a person who is a regular student in a legally chartered college of veterinary medicine while in performance of those duties and actions assigned by his instructors, or under the direct supervision of a licensed veterinarian in the State of Maryland; (5) a person who advises with respect to or performs acts which the Board by rule has prescribed as accepted management practices in connection with livestock production; (6) a physician licensed to practice medicine in this State, or to his assistant while engaged in educational research; (7) a person administering to the ills and injuries of their own animals; provided, however, that they otherwise comply with all laws, rules and regulations relative to the use of medicines and biologics used in so doing; and (8) a farrier or a person actively engaged in the art or profession of horse-shoeing as long as such actions are limited to the art of horse-shoeing only.

151.

(d) "Temporary Permit" means a temporary permit to practice veterinary medicine, issued pursuant to Section 152B of this sub-title.

(e) "Direct supervision" means that a licensed graduate Veterinarian in the State of Maryland shall be in the immediate vicinity of the premises wherein, or whereon, the act of diagnosing, or treating, or surgery is being performed.

152.

(a) The State Board of Veterinary Medical Examiners shall have power [a] to establish and alter, from time to time, the standards of preliminary and professional education and training requirements for applicants for examinations for license to practice veterinary medicine;

(b) To investigate and determine acceptability and to approve and disapprove colleges and institutions for the education and training of students desiring to be licensed to practice veterinary medicine, and to cancel or revoke such approvals where such colleges and institutions no longer are deemed satisfactory; provided that the approval of such college or institution by the American Veterinary Medical Association shall be deemed sufficient to qualify such college