

specific term or condition the place where such prisoner is to be confined when not released for the purposes of the "work release" program. If any prisoner released from actual confinement under a "work release" plan shall wilfully fail to return to the place of confinement so designated at the time specified in such plan, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction, shall be subject to the penalties provided in Section 139 of Article 27.

(d) A prisoner employed in the community under a "work release" plan shall surrender to the Department of Correction his total earnings, less payroll deductions required by law. The Department shall deduct from such earnings, in the following order of priority, an amount determined to be the cost to the State of providing food, lodging and clothing for such prisoner; the actual and necessary food, travel and other expenses of such prisoner when released from actual confinement under the program; and such amount as the prisoner may be legally obligated to pay for the support of his dependents, which amount shall be paid to such dependents through the local department of welfare in the county or city in which such dependents reside. Any balance remaining after such deductions and payments shall be credited to the prisoner's account and shall be paid to him upon release.

(e) No prisoner employed in the community under the provisions of this Section shall be deemed to be an agent, employee or involuntary servant of the Department of Correction while released from confinement pursuant to the terms of any "work release" plan. The provisions of Section 188A of Article 41 shall not apply in the event of any injuries sustained in the gainful private employment of any prisoner released under a "work release" plan.

(f) Nothing in this Section shall be construed to affect eligibility for parole, as provided in Article 41, or diminution of confinement, as provided in the preceding Section, of any prisoner released under a "work release" plan.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1963.
