The president may attend all meetings of the Board except when his own tenure, salary, or the administration of his office are under consideration, but he shall have no right to vote.*

(f) As soon as such action is deemed practicable and advisable the Board shall take all steps necessary and desirable to establish full four-year courses of instruction in the arts and sciences in the State colleges where such programs are not now offered, and to foster and expand such programs where already established. There shall be maintained at all State colleges Baccalaureate degree programs for the preparation of teachers.

(g) Students regularly admitted to or enrolled in any class at the State colleges from the City of Baltimore and the several counties, who shall obligate themselves to teach in the public schools of the State of Maryland, shall not be required to pay any tuition fees. Other students who possess the prescribed qualifications may be admitted in the discretion of the Board of Trustees on payment of such fees and tuition charges as determined by the Board.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That Sections 26, 33, 42, 46, 215(b) and 244 of said Article 77 of the Code (1957 Edition and 1962 Supplement), subtitles, respectively, "Chapter 3. State Board of Education," "Chapter 4. State Superintendent of Schools," "Chapter 20. Source and Distribution of Income" and "Chapter 25. Miscellaneous," be and they are hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, and all to read as follows:

26.

The State Board of Education shall prescribe, with and on the advice of the State Superintendent of Schools, courses of study for the public [elementary schools, the public high schools, and the State normal] schools, which shall be printed in such quantities as to provide each public school official and teacher with a copy, and sufficient for general distribution among the private schools and interested citizens of the State.

The State Board of Education shall transmit [biennially] to the Governor, certified to by the State Superintendent of Schools, an annual State public school budget as determined by existing laws, including the appropriation for the State Department of Education, [the maintenance of the State normal schools,] the retired teachers' pensions, State aid to approved high schools, State aid to approved colored industrial schools, the part payment of the salaries of county superintendents of schools, and of one supervisor and one attendance officer in each of the counties and the superintendent, one supervisor and one attendance officer in the City of Baltimore, the free textbook fund, materials of instruction and school supplies, and such other appropriations for special educational purposes as may from time to time be made by the General Assembly, and an estimate of the amount that will remain, after all deductions for special purposes and activities, for apportionment to the counties and the City of Baltimore.
