

during the growing season upon any land planted to crops which might be damaged by such entry.

32.

Any person or persons who shall move, remove, break, mutilate, deface, destroy, or otherwise injure any monument or monuments marking any boundary between the State of Maryland and any adjacent state, commonwealth or district shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined fifty dollars ($50.00) for each and every offense. Any person or persons who shall have in his or their possession any monument heretofore placed, or prepared to be placed, upon any boundary of this State shall, upon demand being made for the same by the [Board of Natural Resources] Department of Forests and Parks, surrender and deliver the same to the said [Board or to one of the constituent departments,] Department or to its agents or employees [of the said Board], and upon failure of any such person or persons to surrender and deliver such monuments as hereinbefore required, such person shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined fifty dollars ($50.00) for each and every offense. The [officers of the Board of Natural Resources, and the full-time] game wardens, forest wardens and other conservation officers of the [component departments of the Board,] State are hereby invested with the powers of arrest and with other powers necessary to the enforcements of this section. Nothing in this section shall be construed to require either the Maryland Historical Society or the Historical Society of Pennsylvania to surrender or deliver to the [Board of Natural Resources] Department the Mason and Dixon monument placed in the custody of each of the said societies by the mutual consent of the State of Maryland and the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in 1902.

33.

All islands created, made or formed within the confines of Sinepuxent, Isle of Wight and Chincoteague bays by the dumping or depositing of excavated material from dredging or other artificial means employed either by the State of Maryland or by the United States, or by either or both, or by any department or agency thereof during the construction or maintenance of the Ocean City Inlet and the channel in said bays, as well as all accretion to such islands, past or future, are hereby declared to be natural resources of the State of Maryland and title to the same be retained for the use of the [Board of Natural Resources] Department of Forests and Parks DEPARTMENT OF GAME AND INLAND FISH and no patent therefore, shall hereafter be issued by the Land Commissioner of Maryland. The [Board of Natural Resources] Department is hereby authorized and empowered to use said lands for conservation purposes in such manner and under such regulations as in its discretion it may deem for the best interest of the State, subject however, to the approval of the Board of Public Works. Provided, however, that persons who have licenses to hunt or fish in Worcester County shall have the right to hunt or fish, as the case may be, on said lands during the open season for such hunting or fishing. Nothing contained herein shall be construed to affect past or future accretions to lands under private ownership bounding on, or surrounded by the waters of, Chincoteague, Isle of Wight and Sinepuxent bays.