

tions 106(k), 159(j), and 215(c) of said Article and Code, subtitles, respectively, "Chapter 8. Teachers' Certificates, Salaries and Pensions", "Chapter 12. County Superintendent of Schools", and "Chapter 20. Source and Distribution of Income" be and they are hereby repealed; and that new Sections 288(c-2), 288(k), 289(f-3) and 289(f-4) be and they are hereby added to Article 81 of said Code (1957 Edition and 1963 Supplement), title "Revenue and Taxes", subtitle "Income Tax", to follow respectively after Sections 288(c-1), 288(j), and 289(f-2) thereof, and all to read as follows:

Article 77

33.

The State Board of Education shall transmit to the Governor, certified to by the State Superintendent of Schools, an annual State public school budget as determined by existing laws, including the appropriation for the State Department of Education, the retired teachers' pensions, [State aid to approved high schools, State aid to approved colored industrial schools, the part payment of the salaries of county superintendents of schools, and of one supervisor and one attendance officer in each of the counties and the superintendent, one supervisor and one attendance officer in the City of Baltimore, the free textbook fund, materials of instruction and school supplies, and such other appropriations for special educational purposes as may from time to time be made by the General Assembly,] and an estimate of the amount that will remain, after all deductions for special purposes and activities, for apportionment to the counties and the City of Baltimore; and the annual State budget shall include the necessary costs of transporting pupils to public schools when such transportation is approved by the State Superintendent of Schools. It shall also be the duty of the State Board of Education, on and with the advice of the State Superintendent of Schools, to prepare, from time to time, as it may be deemed wise, bills, and to recommend the same to the Governor and the General Assembly, providing for changes in the appropriation for special educational purposes and activities and in the total amount raised and contributed by the State for the encouragement and support of public education.

92.

[On and after July 1, 1951, whenever an elementary school numbers more than thirty children in average enrollment, an assistant may be employed by the county board of education, or Board of School Commissioners of Baltimore City; and for every additional thirty children, one teacher shall be appointed.]

The State Board of Education from time to time shall adopt rules and regulations fixing as it may deem necessary the ratio of elementary school teachers to pupils enrolled, within the overall ratios ~~establish~~ ESTABLISHED in Section 159.

106.

(b) Beginning with the school year [1961-1962] 1964-1965 and continuing thereafter subject to the other provisions of this section, every teacher, with a degree, holding a [regular bachelor of science, academic, special, vocational, or higher] standard professional or