

The purpose of this message is to express to you my appreciation, and the appreciation of the people of Maryland, for the diligent manner in which you handled these controversial and troublesome problems during this short time.

On behalf of the people of Maryland I wish to commend you for the excellent way in which you have discharged your responsibilities in the high office you hold.

With kindest regards and best wishes to all of you, I am

Sincerely,

J. MILLARD TAWES,

Governor.
