So the House refused to assent to the said amendment.

The question then recurred on assenting to the said resolution.

On motion of Mr. Lecompte of Carroll,

The following amendment was read and assented to :

Strike out "other officers," where it occurs last in the first resolution, and add to the said resolution the following :

"And other officers of the said companies in the same relative proportion to their existing salaries."

The question then recurred on assenting to the said resolutions as amended :

And on being put, were assented to and sent to the Senate.

The Speaker laid before the House the report of the proceedings of the agents to represent the State in all joint stock companies, in which the State has an interest ;

Which was read, ordered to be printed and referred to the committee on Internal Improvements.

Mr. Buskirk submitted the following :

Whereas, it appears to this General Assembly, by the annual report of the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal Company, bearing date December 2, 1842, that there are various small parcels of land, remnants of pieces condemned, or purchased, for the use and benefit of said canal company, situated along the line of said canal, which are not, and never can be, required for the use of said canal or its works, and which are covered by certain mortgages executed by said company to the State of Maryland ; and whereas, it is believed that said parcels of land may now be profitably disposed of by a sale of the same for the scrip, bonds and other evidences of debt of said company, but in order to make such sales, and to convey a good and sufficient title to the purchasers thereof, it is necessary to obtain the authority and sanction of this State—Therefore,

Be it resolved by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the President and Directors of the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal Company, be and they are hereby authorised and empowered to sell and dispose of, to the best advantage, all such pieces or parcels of land and premises, owned by said company, or conveyed by mortgages executed by said company, as aforesaid, and which are not required for the purposes of the canal or its works, and to
