So the House refused to postpone.

The question then recurred on the amendment of Mr. Lynch to the amendment of Mr. Hammond;

On motion of Mr. Causin,

The further consideration of said order and amendments was postponed until next Monday two weeks.

Mr. Gallagher submitted the following:

Resolved by the General Assembly of Maryland, That our senators and representatives in Congress be requested to vote for the passage of a bill to refund to General Jackson the fine of one thousand dollars, imposed upon him by Judge Hall, with interest from the time of the payment thereof.—And be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be forwarded to each of our senators and representatives in Congress by his Excellency, the Governor;

Which were read the first time and laid on the table.

The Speaker then announced the appointment of the following standing committee on elections and privileges:

Messrs. Murray, Handy, of Somerset, Boteler, Dorsey, Tuck, Nicols and Brawner.

The clerk of the Senate delivered the following message :

By the Senate,

December 27th, 1842.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates :

We have received your message proposing the appointment of a joint committee of the two Houses of the Legislature on the Library and concur therein. We have appointed on the part of the Senate, Messrs. Ricard, Maulsby and Williams.

By order,

Jos. H. Nicholson, Clk.

Also the report of the clerk of Dorchester county in relation to the attendance of Judges ;

Read and referred to the committee on Grievances and Courts of Justice to be hereafter appointed.

And the report from the same clerk shewing the amount of monies paid by him into the Treasury.

Read and referred to the committee on Ways and Means to be hereafter appointed.

On motion of Mr. Graves,
