

STATE DEPARTMENT,

Annapolis, January 18th, 1843.To the HonorableThe General Assembly:

I have the honor herewith to submit a report of the Adjutant General of the State, covering those of the several armourers.

FRANCIS THOMAS.

Which were read and referred to the committee on the Militia.

Mr. Buskirk submitted the following message :

By the House of Delegates,January 18th, 1843.Gentlemen of the Senate :

We regret that the bill entitled, an act to repeal an act entitled, an act to direct the manner in which the agents to represent the State in all joint stock companies in which the State has an interest, shall hereafter be appointed, has failed to receive the favorable consideration of your honorable body.

Believing that the most important interests of the State are in a great degree dependent on the passage of the said bill, we herewith respectfully return the same in the hope that your honorable body will consent to reconsider and pass it.

Which was read,

On the question being put,

Will the House assent to the said message?

On motion of Mr. Morsell,

The yeas and nays were required and appeared as follows :
