

So the order was adopted.

Mr. Nesbit submitted the following order :

Ordered, That the resolutions in reference to a suspension of the State taxes for 1843, submitted by Mr. Key from St. Mary's county, a few days since, be made the order of the day for Wednesday the 8th of February, instead of Monday next, as is now the case ;

Which was read.

Mr. Murray then moved to amend the said order by striking out "Wednesday the 8th of February," and inserting "next Tuesday week."

Mr. Causin then submitted the following as a substitute for the said order and amendment :

Ordered, That the resolution introduced on Friday the 13th instant, in relation to the postponement of the collection of the direct tax of 1841 and 1842, be now taken up and referred to the committee on Ways and Means, with instruction to report on them by Thursday next.

Which was read.

On the question being put,

Will the House accept the said substitute ?

On motion of Mr. Key,

The yeas and nays were required and appeared as follows :
