Leave was granted to the committee on the Constitution, to bring in a bill to amend the Constitution of the State of Maryland, by taking from the Legislature the power of pledging the credit of the State, in aid of works of internal improvement, by any future issue of State bonds.

Mr. Buskirk then proposed to change the 36th rule of the House, by striking therefrom all from the word "and" inclusive, where it occurs in the second line, which under the rules of the House was laid over for one day.

The House reconsidered the vote of yesterday, on motion of Mr. Causin, to postpone the order and amendments thereto, in relation to the assumption of the State debts by the General Government.
