

The bill entitled, an act for the protection of water fowl on the Potomac river.

The bill entitled, a supplement to an act entitled, an act to establish magistrates courts in the several counties of this State, and to prescribe their jurisdiction, passed March 1836, chapter 201.

And the bill entitled, an act to incorporate the Union Hall Company of Fells Point;

Severally endorsed "will pass."

Mr. Crain submitted the following message:

By the House of Delegates,

February 2, 1843.

Gentlemen of the Senate:

We propose, with the concurrence of your honorable body, to fix the fourth day of March next for the adjournment of the Legislature.

We believe that the interval will be amply sufficient for the transaction of all the business for our consideration, and a designation of a day will hasten our action.

We anticipate your concurrence, as the depressed state of the treasury admonishes us to close the session as early as practicable, having a regard to the interest of the State;

Which was read.

Mr. Owens moved to lay the said message on the table.

On the question being put,

On motion of Mr. Crain,

The yeas and nays were required and appeared as follows:
