So the House refused to lay the said message on the table.

The question then recurred on assenting to the said message, and before it was put, the hour having arrived,

The House resumed the consideration of the unfinished business of yesterday, being the preamble and resolution submitted by Mr. Causin, in relation to the issue of two hundred millions of dollars of Government stock.

The question still being on the amendment submitted by Mr. Brown, to strike out in the third clause of the preamble all from the word "Government" to the end of the said clause, and insert "the power to make all needful rules and regulations respecting the territory or other property belonging to the United States."

On motion of Mr. Roberts,

The House adjourned until to-morrow morning ten o'clock.
