

fish, leather, lumber, firewood, lime and plaster of paris, and on the commissions of gaugers, wharfingers, commissioners of insolvent debtors and lotteries, State librarian, examiners general, agents and warden of the penitentiary, notaries public, justices of the orphans court, of the magistrates' courts, and of the peace; and on the commissions of all other persons holding annual appointments under the Executive, and that they report by bill or otherwise.

Which was read.

On motion of Mr. Buchanan,

The following amendment to the said order, was read and assented to:

Insert after the word "Executive," in the last line "and upon the fees of all clerks and registers of the several counties of this State."

On motion of Mr. Dorsey,

The following additional amendment to the said order, was read and assented to, "and upon all commission merchants."

On motion of Mr. Buchanan,

The following additional amendment was read and assented to: "And upon the fees of the Attorney General, and all other prosecuting attorneys of this State."

On motion of Mr. Kilgour,

The following additional amendment was read and assented to: "And also upon the commissions allowed to all trustees."

On motion of Mr. Starr,

The following additional amendment was read and assented to: "And upon the per diem of the members of the Legislature and clerks of both of the Houses."

On motion of Mr. Graves,

The following additional amendment was read and assented to: "And the per diem of the agents of the State in all joint stock companies in which the State has an interest."

On motion of Mr. Phelps,

The following additional amendment was read and assented to: "And upon all salaried officers of this State."

On motion of Mr. Morsell,

The following additional amendment was read and assented to: "And upon all clerks of commission agents and inspectors."

The question then recurred on the adoption of the order as amended;

And on being put, was adopted.

Mr. Buskirk, from the committee on Grievances and Courts of Justice, to which was referred the bill from the Senate entitled, an act to make valid a certain deed therein mentioned, reported the same with the following amendment:

Amendment proposed:

Strike out all from the word "mentioned" in the ninth line to the end of said bill;