So the House refused to take up the said leave.

On motion of Mr. Tuck,

Leave was granted to the committee on Grievances and Courts of Justice, to bring in a bill entitled, an act to authorise the clerks of the county courts to approve the bonds of trustees under decrees in equity.

The clerk of the senate delivered the following message:

By the Senate,

January 2nd, 1843.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates :

We have received your message announcing the death of Aaron Duvall, Esq., State Armorer at the seat of government, and proposing as a testimonial of respect to his memory, that the public flag be raised at half mast during the day, and that the members of the two Houses convene in their respective chambers this evening at 3 o'clock, to attend his funeral service in procession, and concur therein.

By order,

Jos. H. Nicholson, Cl'k.
