

Read the first time and referred to the committee on Crimes and Punishments.

And returned the following bills:

The bill entitled, an act to incorporate the Channing Literary Institute of Baltimore;

And the bill entitled, an act to make valid the official bond of James Polk, Register of Wills of Somerset county, and for other purposes;

Severally endorsed "will pass,"—ordered to be engrossed.

On motion of Mr. Roberts.

Leave was granted to Messrs. Roberts, Graves, Tuck, Randall and Kilgour, to bring in a bill entitled, a supplement to an act entitled, an act to authorise the licensing of stock brokers, exchange brokers and bill brokers, and to regulate contracts for the purchase and sale of loans and stocks, passed December session, 1841.

Mr. Worthington then moved that the House do now adjourn; Determined in the negative.

After some time, Mr. Phelps again moved that the House do now adjourn;

Determined in the negative.

On motion of Mr. Gallagher,

The House resumed the consideration of the resolutions instructing our Representatives in Congress to vote for refunding the fine imposed by Judge Hall on Gen. Jackson;

The question being on assenting to the said resolutions;

Mr. Tuck then moved to amend the first resolution by adding at the end thereof the following:

"Provided however, that this resolution shall not be construed into any expression of opinion as to the justice of the fine, or as to the conduct and motives of Judge Hall in imposing it;"

Which was read;

On the question being put,

Will the House assent to the said amendment?

On motion of Mr. Kilgour,

The yeas and nays were required and appeared as follows:
