

(c) Any member in service who has attained the age of 60 [sixty-four] shall be retired on the first day of the next calendar month after attaining such age, excepting the physician of the Department who shall be retired on the first [1st] day of the next calendar month after attaining the age of 70 and those employees who were members as of July 1, ~~1964~~ 1965, and had attained the age of 50 as of such date who shall be retired not later than on the first day of the calendar month next following the attainment of age 64.

(2) Upon retirement for service a member shall receive a service retirement allowance which shall consist of:

(a) An annuity which shall be the actuarial equivalent of his accumulated contributions at the time of retirement; and

(b) [For each year of membership service, a] A pension which together with his annuity shall provide a total retirement allowance [be] equal to two per centum [one one-hundredth] of his average final compensation for each of the first twenty-five years of creditable service, and one per centum [one-hundred and twentieth] of his average final compensation for each year after the first twenty-five years of creditable service; [and] provided that the pension which shall be payable to any member who has more than twenty-five years of creditable service as of July 1, 1965, shall not be less than the sum of the pension, additional pension and supplemental pension he would have received upon service retirement under the provisions of this subtitle in effect prior to July 1, 1965.

[(c) If he has a prior service certificate in full force and effect, additional pension for each year of prior service which shall be equal to one-fiftieth of his average final compensation for each of the first twenty-five years of creditable service, and one-sixtieth of his average final compensation for each year after the first twenty-five years of creditable service, and

(d) If he was an employee prior to the date of establishment, a supplemental pension which shall be equal to the actuarial equivalent of the amount by which his accumulated contributions if begun at the date of establishment and continued until the time of retirement at the rate applicable to a member of his age at the date of establishment would exceed his actual contributions at the time of retirement.]

(3) Upon the application of a member in service or of his department head, any member who has had five [ten] or more years of creditable service may be retired by the Board of Trustees, not less than thirty and not more than ninety days next following the date of filing such application, on an ordinary disability retirement allowance, provided that the Medical Board, after a medical examination of such member, shall certify that such member is mentally or physically incapacitated for the further performance of duty, that such incapacity is likely to be permanent, and that such member should be retired for the good of the Department.

(4) Upon retirement for ordinary disability a member shall receive a service retirement allowance if he has attained the age of 50 [55], otherwise he shall receive an ordinary disability retirement allowance which shall consist of:

(a) An annuity which shall be the actuarial equivalent of his accumulated contributions at the time of retirement; and