

certification of the appointments of qualified applicants to receive authorized and vacant scholarships and (2) upon receipt from the respective institutions of certification of the enrollment of said appointed applicants. Payments to the respective institutions shall be determined as to amount according to the regular charges of the respective institutions applicable for Maryland students enrolled in the same program as the respective scholarship holders for tuition, room and board, or whichever of these charges shall be provided by the scholarships. Provided that, in the event an institution has varying charges for room or board, the payments to such institution for the room or board, as the case may be, of any student at such institution receiving a scholarship under this article for room and board shall be in an amount equal to the charges of such institution to other students receiving room or board, as the case may be, identical or comparable to that provided for said student any funds remaining unused at the end of any fiscal year shall revert to the general funds of the State Treasury.

(h) If the recipient of any scholarship awarded according to the provisions of this section shall withdraw from the institution to which the scholarship is provided, or shall otherwise cease to fulfill the requirements entitling him to receive the benefits of the scholarship, during the course of an academic year, the State shall be entitled to receive from the institution a pro rata refund according to the policy of the institution with respect to refunds to students in the event of withdrawal. Such refund shall be made to the State Scholarship Board, which shall immediately notify the appointing authority concerned. Said appointing authority shall then be entitled to make an interim appointment, in accordance with the provisions of this article, except those requiring an examination; the person so appointed shall be entitled to receive the unused portion of the scholarship only for the remainder of that scholastic year, but shall not thereby be prevented from receiving subsequent appointments according to the provisions of this article, including those requiring an examination.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That new Sections 265A, 265B, 265C, 265D, and 265E be and they are hereby added to Article 77 of the Code, title "Public Education", sub-title "Chapter 27. Free Scholarships", said new Sections to follow immediately after Section 265 thereof and to read as follows:

There is hereby established a program of State scholarships for students enrolled in the College of Notre Dame of Maryland.

(a) Beginning for the academic year 1966-67 and thereafter, one student from each senatorial district of the State, appointed according to the provisions of Section 282 of this article, shall be educated by the College free of charge for tuition, room and board. Each student accepting such an appointment shall pursue a course of study at the College leading to a regular teacher's certificate in the public school system of Maryland, and shall give bond to the State of Maryland, according to the provisions of Section 284B of this article, that she will teach in the public schools of this State for not less than two years.

(b) Beginning for the academic year 1967-68 and thereafter, one student from each senatorial district of the State, appointed accord-
