

assistance of the Attorney General, shall do such things as are necessary and proper to enforce the obligation of the bond [.] ; provided, however, that no court action shall be instituted by the Attorney General in the name of the State or the State Scholarship Board to enforce the obligation of such bond without the prior approval of the Board, which approval the Board, within its sole discretion, may withhold.

The State Scholarship Board shall be empowered to collect the moneys due on said bond obligations. At the end of each fiscal year, any funds so collected shall be paid over to the general funds of the State Treasury.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this sub-title or elsewhere in this article, whenever there is a requirement in any provision of this sub-title or elsewhere in this article that an applicant awarded a scholarship shall give a bond to teach in the public schools of this State for a specified time, all bonds required of such scholarship applicants or appointees, hereafter given, shall be in such amount and with such security as may be approved by the State Scholarship Board and shall contain a provision or condition to the effect that within five years after leaving the educational institution to which the appointee is awarded a scholarship, excluding a maximum of four years in military service, he or she will teach in the public schools of the State for not less than two years.

SEC. 8. And be it further enacted, That sub-section (e) of Section 284H of Article 77 of the Code, title "Public Education", sub-title "Chapter 27A. State Scholarship Board", be and it is hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

(e) Any applicant certified for a scholarship in education may place the certification for the next ensuing scholastic year with any one of the several eligible institutions as defined in sub-section (b) of this section. The institution at its discretion may reject the applicant according to its admission standards, or if he appears by reason of character, temperament or other cause to be of unsatisfactory potential as a teacher in the public school system of this State. Provided, however, that the financial need of the applicant meets the requirements therefor determined by uniform rules and regulations adopted and promulgated by the State Scholarship Board, which shall be so prepared and applied as to assure that definite financial need shall be a prerequisite to receiving a scholarship under the provisions of this section. Provided, further, that no student shall receive a scholarship under the provisions of this section who also receives a scholarship under the provisions of any other section of this article. Once appointed to a scholarship and accepted by one of the eligible institutions, the applicant may hold it for four years subject to the following conditions: (1) that he give bond to the State of Maryland, according to the provisions of Section 284B of this article, [in such amount and with such security as may be approved by the State Scholarship Board] that he will teach in the public schools of this State for not less than two years after leaving the eligible institution, (2) that he be enrolled in the institution's
