29.

On the fifth Tuesday preceding any primary election and on the Tuesday [eight] ~~six~~ FIVE and [seven] ~~five~~ FOUR weeks, respectively, preceding any general election, each board of registry in the respective counties shall meet at the place designated by the board of supervisors of elections. The board shall proceed to make a registration of all the persons in its precincts or districts, as the case may be, who have not previously registered, who may be entitled to vote at the next general election and who shall present themselves before said board of registry for registration. Such person or persons so registered shall be entitled to vote at all primary and general elections held thereafter unless such registration shall be cancelled as hereinafter provided. Notice of such registration days shall be given by the board of supervisors of elections in each county by newspaper advertisements and in the discretion of the board by handbills as is provided for notice of elections in Section 12 of this article.

32.

(a) It shall be the duty of each board of registry, after the close of the session on the Tuesday [seven] five weeks preceding a general election, to note for erasure from the registry the names of all persons appearing thereon known or supposed to be dead, or to have removed from such precinct or district, or suspected of being disqualified under Sections 2 and 3 of Article I of the Constitution of the State. The board before separating shall prepare a list of all persons so noted for erasure with the address of each as it appears upon the registers, under the following headings: "Deceased Voters," "Removed Voters," and "Disqualified Voters."

(c) On the day following preparation of the list of persons so noted for erasure, it shall be the duty of the member of the board acting as clerk to sign and mail to the address as given in the
