

by Chapter 420 of the Acts of 1957; to authorize the retirement of bailiffs of the Orphans' Court of Baltimore City, to specify the ground for retirement and the amount of pension, and to provide for the effect of this act on bailiffs who retired prior to the effective date of this act.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 289 of the Charter and Public Local Laws of Baltimore City (1949 Edition, being Article 4 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland), title "Baltimore City," subtitle "Orphans' Court," as last amended by Chapter 420 of the Acts of 1957, be and it is hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

(a) The Bailiff of the said Orphans' Court of Baltimore City shall receive a salary of not less than $4,500.00 nor more than $5,250.00 per annum, payable in monthly installments at the end of each and every month by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, said salary to be determined and certified to by the Judges of the Orphans' Court of Baltimore City.

(b) From and after July 1, 1965, whenever any bailiff has served for at least ten (10) preceding consecutive years or whenever at any time any bailiff becomes physically or mentally incapacitated from performing his duties as a bailiff from disease or accident not resulting from his own misconduct, he is entitled to be retired and to receive a pension of two thousand dollars ($2,000.00) per annum. No bailiff may be retired unless a certificate is approved by the Orphans' Court and presented to the Treasurer of Baltimore City, stating that the bailiff is entitled to retirement under the provisions of this section. Nothing in this subsection shall relate to or affect the retirement of any bailiff who retired or who left his position under this section prior to July 1, 1965, unless the bailiff had served at least ten (10) consecutive years as a bailiff prior to his retirement.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1965.

Approved March 26, 1965.
