

[100.

The three County Commissioners elected at said general election in the year eighteen hundred and ninety-three shall hold office for the terms of six, four and two years respectively from the date of their election, and the Governor so soon as he conveniently may after receiving the official returns of said election shall fairly determine by lot which of said three commissioners shall hold his office for the term of six years, and which for the term of four years, and which for the term of two years, and in accordance with said determination by lot shall issue to them their commissions for their annual terms; thereafter beginning at the general election on the Tuesday next after the first Monday in the month of November in the year eighteen hundred and ninety-five at each general election on the same day in every second year, one County Commissioner for the said county shall be elected for the term of six years from the date of his election, in case the office of any of them shall become vacant by death, resignation or otherwise, the Governor shall appoint any proper person to fill said vacancy until the next general election, and if the term of the commissioners, by whose death, resignation or incapacity, the office has become vacant, be not then completed, a commissioner shall be elected to same for the unexpired term occasioned by the vacancy that is for two or more years as the case may be.]

101.

The County Commissioners of Caroline County [shall between the first day of March and the first day of June, beginning with the year nineteen hundred and twenty-two, and every two years thereafter,] after their qualification and organization shall appoint a clerk to the County Commissioners of said county, who shall take office [on the first day of July next ensuing his appointment] forthwith and who shall hold his office [for a term of two years, subject, however, to the right of removal by] at the pleasure of the County Commissioners ~~at any time~~; and the said clerk to the County Commissioners shall receive [a salary of Fifteen Hundred Dollars ($1,500.00) per annum, payable in twelve (12) equal instalments of One Hundred and Twenty-five Dollars ($125.00) each at the expiration of each and every month accounting from the date of his appointment, and he shall receive no extra compensation for any service rendered the county.] such compensation as may be determined by the County Commissioners from time to time.

[104.

If any person shall be fined for any misdemeanor and is unable to pay the fine or fees, or give security, and be imprisoned for want of security, they may levy the amount of fees on the county, and the levy so made shall entitle the prisoner to his immediate discharge if he pay the fine or be legally discharged therefrom; and a certificate from a majority of the Commissioners, in the recess of the Commissioners, under their hand, that they will pay such fees at their next session, shall be binding on the Commissioners and entitle the prisoner to a discharge.]

105.

They are authorized and directed to appropriate annually, and pay