

(6) A judgment or decree entered pursuant to the provisions of this article.

(b) The appeal shall be taken in the manner and to the same extent as from orders or judgments in a civil action.

19.

Where a party dies after making a written agreement to submit a controversy to arbitration, the proceedings may be begun or continued upon the application of, or upon notice to, his executor or administrator or, where it relates to real property, his distributee or devisee who has succeeded to his interest in the real property. Where a committee of the property or of the person of a party to such an agreement is appointed, the proceedings may be continued upon the application of, or notice to, the committee. Upon the death or incompetency of a party, the court may extend the time within which an application to confirm, vacate or modify the award or to stay arbitration must be made. Where a party has died since an award was delivered, the proceedings thereupon are the same as where a party dies after a verdict.

20.

This article applies only to agreements made subsequent to the taking effect of this article.

21.

This article shall be so construed as to effectuate its general purpose to make uniform the law of those states which enact it.

22.

If any provision of this article or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the article which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this article are severable.

23.

This article may be cited as the Maryland Uniform Arbitration Act.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That this act shall take effect June 1, 1965.

Approved April 8, 1965.
