

physicians furnishing said medical attendance and not more than fifty dollars ($50.00) of which shall be paid to the nurse or nurses furnishing said nursing attendance; ~~【sixth】~~ seventh, the allowance for things lost or which have perished without the party's fault, which allowance shall be according to the appraisement; ~~【seventh】~~ eighth, debts of the deceased proved or passed in the following order, (a) claims for rent in arrears against deceased persons, for which a distress might be levied by law, but not for a period of more than three months; (b) claims for wages, salaries or commissions to clerks, servants, salesmen or employees contracted not more than three months prior to decedent's death, and claims founded on judgments and decrees, (c) all other just claims. If there be not sufficient to discharge all such judgments and decrees, a proportionate dividend shall be made between the judgment and decree creditors.

7.

Subject to the order and priorities of allowance and payments set forth in Section 6 of this Article, every executor or administrator, within ninety days after the grant of letters, shall pay, out of (the first) moneys received by him, ~~【after the first cost of letters of administration, and after all taxes due from his decedent shall have been paid or determined,】~~ the funeral expenses of his decedent, to be allowed in the discretion of the orphans' court according to the condition and circumstances of the deceased, in no event to exceed $500.00, except by special order of court, and provided the estate of the decedent be solvent ~~【, and the same shall be preferred to all debts and claims against the deceased, except for taxes due and in arrears from the decedent】~~. If the said funeral expenses be not paid within ninety days after the grant of letters testamentary or of administration, the person or corporation having a claim for such funeral expenses may present to the orphans' court a petition verified by oath praying that the executor or administrator may be cited to show cause why he should not be required to make such payment, and a citation shall be issued accordingly. If upon the return of such citation it shall appear that the executor or administrator has received moneys belonging to the estate which are applicable to the payment of the claims for funeral expenses, the orphans' court shall, unless the validity of the claim be admitted by such executor or administrator, take proof as to the amount and validity of the claim, and if satisfied that such claim is valid, shall fix and determine the amount due thereon, and shall make an order directing the payment within ten days after the date of such order and service of a copy thereof upon such executor or administrator of such claim or such proportion thereof as the money in the hands of the executor or administrator applicable thereto may be sufficient to satisfy. If it shall appear that no money has come into the hands of the executor or administrator, the proceeding shall be dismissed without costs in the discretion of the court and without prejudice to a further application or applications showing that since such dismissal the executor or administrator has received money belonging to the estate. Such application shall be made upon a petition verified by oath stating the facts upon which the belief of the petitioner, that there are moneys in the hands of such executor or administrator applicable to the payment of his claim, is based. Upon such further application the issuance of the citation shall be in the discretion of the orphans' court, and no such application shall be made less than three months