

[15.] 25.

(a) In addition to the foregoing powers, the court of this State when acting as the responding state has the power to subject the obligor to such terms and conditions as the court may deem proper to assure compliance with its orders and in particular **[.]

(b) To require the obligor to furnish recognizance in the form of a cash deposit or bond of such character and in such amount as the court may deem proper to assure payment of any amount required to be paid by the obligor.

(c) To require the obligor to make payments at specified intervals to the clerk of the court, probation officer, probation department, or other agency established by the court for the purpose of collecting such payments [or] of the obligee and to report personally to such clerk, probation officer, probation department, or other agency of such court as such court may direct at such times as may be deemed necessary.

(d) To punish the obligor who shall violate any order of the court to the same extent as provided by law for contempt of the court in any other suit or proceedings cognizable by the court.

[16.] 26.

(a) The court of this State when acting as a responding state shall have the following duties which may be carried out through the clerk of the court, probation officer, probation department or other agency of said court.

(b) Upon the receipt of a payment made by the obligor pursuant to any order of the court or otherwise, to transmit the same forthwith to the court of the initiating state, and

(c) Upon request to furnish to the court of the initiating state a certified statement of all payments made by the obligor.

[17.] 27.

The court of this State when acting as an initiating State shall have the duty which may be carried out through the clerk of the court, probation officer, probation department or other agency of said court to receive and disburse forthwith all payments made by the obligor or transmitted by the court of the responding state.

28.

No proceeding under this article shall be stayed because of the existence of a pending suit or action for divorce, separation, annulment, dissolution, habeas corpus or custody proceeding.

[21.] 29.

[Any] No order of support issued by a court of this State when acting as a responding State shall [not] supersede any [previous] other order of support [issued in a divorce or separate maintenance action], but the amounts for a particular period paid pursuant to either order shall be credited against amounts accruing or accrued for the same period under both.
