

299.

Except as otherwise provided in this Act, the provisions of law relating to absentee voting by ballot delivered to the applicant at the office of the board shall apply also to the casting and counting of ballots and challenging of votes by new residents, the furnishing of election supplies, ballots, canvassing of ballots, and making proper returns of the results of the election.

300.

Whenever it appears to any registration official of this State, that an otherwise qualified person seeking to register has not been a resident of this State for the requisite period, such official shall inform such person of his rights under this Act. Every registrar shall inform each applicant under this Act of the requisites and procedures for registration as a fully qualified voter.

301.

As used in this Act, "state" includes the District of Columbia and "presidential election" means an election at which electors of president and vice-president are elected.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1965.

Approved April 8, 1965.

CHAPTER 318

(House Bill 187)

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact, with amendments, Section 99 of Article 52 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1964 Replacement Volume), title "Justices of the Peace," subtitle "Trial Magistrate System," to permit the judges of the People's Court of Prince George's County to designate the time and location of traffic school.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 99 of Article 52 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1964 Replacement Volume), title "Justices of the Peace," subtitle "Trial Magistrate System," be and it is hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

99.

The judges of the People's Court of Montgomery County, except the People's Court judge for juvenile causes, and the judges of the People's Court of Prince George's County, shall have all the authority, powers, civil, criminal and juvenile jurisdiction (except the judges of the People's Court of Prince George's County shall not have juvenile jurisdiction), in the whole of said counties, heretofore vested in the justices of the peace designated as trial magistrates and other justices of the peace of said counties; provided the authority, powers and jurisdiction heretofore, or as may hereafter be vested in said other justices of the peace shall be unaffected by this provision.
