

~~SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That this Act is hereby declared to be an emergency measure and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health and safety, and having been passed by a ye and nay vote supported by three-fifths of the members elected to each of the two Houses of the General Assembly, the same shall take effect from the date of its passage.~~

SEC. 3. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, THAT THIS ACT SHALL TAKE EFFECT JUNE 1, 1965.

Approved April 8, 1965.

CHAPTER 369

(House Bill 1201)

AN ACT to add new Section 452A to the Code of Public Local Laws of Harford County (1957 Edition, being Article 13 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland), title "Harford County," subtitle "Schools," to follow immediately after Section 452 thereof, to require the Harford County Board of Education to study population distribution and growth in Harford County and future projections therefor as related to the need for additional schools and for expansion of existing schools, and to require preparation of a report containing recommendations for future school needs for a five year period with estimated costs of meeting such needs.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That new Section 452A be and it is hereby added to the Code of Public Local Laws of Harford County (1957 Edition, being Article 13 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland), title "Harford County," subtitle "Schools," to follow immediately after Section 452 thereof, and to read as follows:

452A.

The Harford County Board of Education shall study the population distribution of Harford County as of the effective date of this section, and shall in addition study projections of future population growth and dispersement throughout the County for the purpose of attempting to relate such distribution and projections to the need for additional schools and for the expansion and enlargement of existing schools. By January 1, 1966, the Board shall prepare a report for the members of the General Assembly from the county and for the County Commissioners, which shall contain their findings in the areas of study provided for herein with special emphasis upon school needs for the period from January 1, 1967, through the year 1972, together with an estimate of the cost of construction during such period.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted That this Act is hereby declared to be an emergency measure and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health and safety, and having been passed by a ye and nay vote supported by three-fifths of all the members