CHAPTER 400
(House Bill 561)

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact, with amendments, Sections 336 and 337 of Article 93 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1964 Replacement Volume), title "Testamentary Law," subtitle "Widows and Widowers," upon administration to increase a widow's allowance of her husband's personal estate remaining after payment of funeral expenses.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Sections 336 and 337 of Article 93 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1964 Replacement Volume), title "Testamentary Law," subtitle "Widows and Widowers," be and they are hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

336.

In all cases where administration shall have been or shall hereafter be granted upon the estate of any married man who has left a widow and an infant child or infant children surviving him, the said child or children being also the child or children of the said widow, such widow shall be entitled to an allowance of the personal estate remaining after the payment of funeral expenses, for her own use, and that of the said infant children, of the sum of [four hundred and fifty dollars] one thousand dollars to be paid to her in money or in articles of household and kitchen furniture at their appraised value, as she may elect.

337.

If the decedent leave a widow and no infant child or children surviving him, the widow shall be in like manner entitled to an allowance of [two hundred and twenty-five dollars] five hundred dollars in money or its equivalent in household and kitchen furniture, as provided for in Section 336.
