CHAPTER 527
(Senate Bill 510)

AN ACT to repeal, Sections 344 and 347 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Caroline County, being Article 6 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland, title "Caroline County", sub-title "Jurors", as last amended by Chapter 74 of the Acts of 1941; and to enact new Section 344 to stand in the place of repealed Section 344; combining and simplifying the provisions of the repealed sections to accord with the established existing use of the marble system of drawing jurors in Caroline County.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Sections 344 and 347 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Caroline County, being Article 6 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland, title "Caroline County", sub-title "Jurors", as last amended by Chapter 74 of the Acts of 1941; be and they are hereby repealed, and that new Section 344 be and it is hereby enacted in lieu thereof, to stand in the place of Section 344 repealed, and to read as follows:

Jurors shall be drawn as follows: 150 marbles, numbered to correspond with the names on the list selected and certified as provided in Section 343, shall be placed in a box of suitable size, divided into compartments corresponding to the election districts of Caroline County. Each marble corresponding to a name on the list shall go into the compartment corresponding to the election district where the person so named resides. The judge or judges shall then, in the presence of the members of the bar and such other persons who may attend, cause the clerk or one of his deputies, who shall not have been present at the drawing of the list as in Section 343, to draw a number of marbles, proportionate to the population of the corresponding election district, as set forth in Section 343, to be drawn from each compartment, to a total of 48, and in such manner that the person drawing cannot see the numbers before drawing and does not know which
