

the preceding sections have been complied with, and shall be prima facie evidence of title to the said clean or soiled articles or prima facie evidence of title to or right to use, collect and deliver in the said returnable containers.

474. Unlawful Use of Registered Containers; Defacing, Etc., of Identification; Breaking, Injuring, Etc., of Containers. After a description of such returnable containers, or such clean articles, shall have been registered, as in Section 473 of this article provided, it is hereby declared to be unlawful for any or all other persons, partnerships or bodies corporate to use or fill any such registered returnable container (whether actually in existence at the time of such registration or not) with any contents of a nature different from that delivered therein; or to sell, buy, rent or otherwise traffic in any clean, laundered or soiled articles mentioned in this chapter so marked or designated as provided herein; or to wilfully deface, erase, obliterate, cover up, or otherwise remove, conceal or destroy, any such name, mark or device of identification affixed, attached, impressed or imprinted thereto or thereon; or to wilfully break, destroy or otherwise injure any such returnable container, or such clean articles; or to have on sale, offer for sale, buy, sell, use, take, give, receive, handle in the course of business, hire, rent, lend, transport, convey in any vehicle of any kind or character, collect from ash or garbage receptacles, public or private dumps or premises, or to otherwise keep in stock or store, or to otherwise dispose of, deal in, or traffic in any of the said returnable containers, or parts or pieces of the same, or in such clean laundered or soiled articles, without an assignment from or the written consent of the one causing the same to be registered; and all such unlawful acts are declared to be misdemeanors, and upon conviction thereof the offender for the first offense shall be punished by an imprisonment of not more than one year, or by a fine or not more than fifty dollars, and for the second offense and subsequent offenses, by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by a fine of not more than fifty dollars or by both fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court or justice of the peace before whom such offender is tried; the said fines and all costs incurred to be collected in the same manner as other fines and costs are collected. In any prosecution under this section the possession by the one so accused of any such clean laundered or soiled articles or of any registered returnable container or of any part or parts thereof other than by a garbage man collecting the same in the regular course of his business, and other than the possession of any such container by the one who received the same with its contents, or possession of any registered clean laundered or soiled articles, shall be prima facie evidence that such person is guilty of the offenses so charged.

475. Cleansing Dairy Product Containers; Surrender of Containers on Demand. It shall be the duty of those receiving any such returnable containers in which milk or cream or any dairy products comes into immediate contact, to thoroughly cleanse the inside of such containers immediately upon emptying the contents; and it is further declared to be the duty of every one receiving any registered returnable container or any registered clean laundered or soiled articles, within the scope of this sub-title, to promptly surrender such containers, or such articles, upon demand to the owners or dealers from whom the same were received; and a violation of
