

For these reasons I have decided to veto House Bill 77. At the same time, however, I am instructing the Commissioner of Personnel to study this particular matter in detail to determine if additional administrative action needs to be taken in this area. Should this study indicate the need for legislation, I will be glad to see that such legislation is proposed.

With kindest personal regards, I am

Sincerely yours,

(s) J. MILLARD TAWES,
Governor.
