

The members of the House of Delegates of Maryland are pleased to congratulate and felicitate the Honorable and Mrs. Thomas Hunter Lowe upon the recent blessed event in the Lowe family in the person of Master John Vincent Lowe.

We are proud indeed to know of this happy occurrence in the Lowe family.

Until this auspicious event, we were beginning to feel that Tom Lowe could do nothing but spin his wheels in futility over the years. We have seen him contending with his balky Judiciary Committee, tilting at windmills with the Supreme Court of the United States, grinding his gears on reapportionment, trying to explain the mysticism of the Rule of 76, attempting to rationalize the subject of revolving credit, and engaged in all manner of self-defeating and frustrating legislative endeavors.

Now, however, the fortunes of the Lowe family have taken a vast improvement. Tom and Jane Lowe have gone through the mystery and the majesty of the human child and have reached this great culminating experience in family life.

We congratulate both of them and are highly pleased over the great fortune and happy prospects for the Lowe family; now, therefore, be it
