

Clerk's office. Because of these traits of character, and his willingness to be helpful to the public, Mr. Horsey was well liked by the people of his community and of Caroline County and exemplified in the eyes of many the ideal public servant.

Mr. Horsey was a lifelong Democrat and active in the affairs of the party on the Eastern Shore. He was a charter member of the Lions Club of Denton, and was devoted to the affairs of St. Luke's Methodist Church in Denton, which he served as a member of its official board.

He is survived by his wife, one daughter, and four sons.

In the death of D. Ralph Horsey, the members of the Senate of Maryland, together with his friends and neighbors of Denton and Caroline County, feel a profound sense of sorrow; now therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of Maryland, That we express our most sincere regrets upon the passing of D. Ralph Horsey of Denton; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this Resolution are sent to Mr. D. Ralph Horsey of 211 South Sixth Street, Denton, and to his children, Mrs. Mary Lou Horsey Truitt, and to William, Daniel, Bradford and Robert Horsey.

Which was read and adopted.
