

75.

Any officer, director or employee of any banking institution who shall wilfully and knowingly subscribe to or make or cause to be made any false statement or false entry in the books of any bank, trust company or savings institution, or shall knowingly subscribe to or exhibit false papers, with the intent to deceive any person or persons authorized to examine into the affairs of said bank, trust company or savings institution, shall be deemed guilty of a felony, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than five thousand dollars, or by imprisonment in the State Penitentiary for not more than ten (10) years, or by both fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court, and also any officer, clerk or employee of any institution subject to the provisions of this article who shall accept a deposit, when said institution is known by him to be insolvent shall be deemed guilty of a [misdemeanor] felony and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by imprisonment in the State Penitentiary for a period not more than three years.

108F.

No person, copartnership, corporation or any other entity created under the laws of this or any other state not authorized by its charter to conduct the business of a banking institution and not subject to the supervision, control and examination of the Commissioner, and not required to make reports to him in accordance with the provisions of this article, shall make use of any sign at the place where such business is transacted, having thereon any artificial or corporate name or other words indicating that such place or office is in the place or office of a banking institution as defined in this article; nor shall such person or persons, copartnership or corporation or any other entity make use of or circulate any letterheads, billheads, blank notes, blank receipts, certificates, circulars or any written or printed, or partly written or printed paper whatever, having thereon any artificial or corporate name, or other word or words indicating that such business is the business of a banking institution. Neither shall any such person, copartnership, corporation or any other entity broadcast over the radio or the television in any manner whatsoever, any written or printed statements or any oral statements which would indicate by such media that they are a banking institution.

Any person, copartnership, corporation or any other entity violating any of the provisions of this section, either individually or as an interested party in any copartnership, or corporation, shall be deemed guilty of a [misdemeanor] felony and on conviction thereof shall be fined not more than three thousand dollars ($3,000.00), or be imprisoned for not more than five years, or by both fine and imprisonment.
