CHAPTER 647

(House Bill 527)

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact, with amendments, Section 256 of Article 56 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1964 Replacement Volume and 1965 Supplement), title "Licenses," subtitle "Home-Improvement Law," providing that installation of central heating or air-conditioning systems shall be deemed within the scope of the craft or profession of a plumber, electrician, architect, or other such person required by law to attain standards of competency or experience, so as to exempt such installations from licensing requirements under the Home-Improvement Law.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 256 of Article 56 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1964 Replacement Volume and 1965 Supplement), title "Licenses," subtitle "Home-Improvement Law," be and it is hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

256.

No contractor's or salesman's license shall be required of any person when acting in the particular capacity or particular type of transaction set forth in this section:

(1) An individual who performs labor or services for a contractor for wages or salary and who does not act in the capacity of salesman for the contractor.
