

People's Court of Montgomery County shall continue to be chief judge and administrative officer until his term expires and until his successor is appointed and qualifies or until he is removed, and providing for the appointment of his successor in the event of his removal.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 98(a) of Article 52 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1957 Edition and 1964 Replacement Volume), title "Justices of the Peace," subtitle "Trial Magistrates System," be and it is hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

(a) As of June 15, 1955, the County Council for Montgomery County shall appoint three judges of the People's Court of Montgomery County who shall meet the qualifications provided in this article and who shall serve until the first day of May in the year 1963 or until their successors are appointed and qualified. As of the first day of May, 1963, and as of the first day of May in every tenth year thereafter, the County Council of Montgomery County shall appoint three judges of the People's Court of Montgomery County to fill the positions then expiring. As of January 1, 1962, the County Council for Montgomery County shall appoint an additional full-time judge of the People's Court of Montgomery County who shall meet the qualifications provided in this article and who shall serve until the first day of January, 1970, or until his successor is appointed and qualified. As of the first day of January, 1970, and as of the first day of January in every tenth year thereafter, the County Council of Montgomery County shall appoint one judge of the People's Court of Montgomery County to fill the position then expiring. One of such judges shall be designated as the People's Court judge for juvenile causes; one of the judges of the People's Court handling criminal, civil, and traffic cases shall be designated as chief judge and administrative officer for the said court, the committing magistrates and other personnel. Said judge so designated as chief judge shall be and continue as chief judge and administrative officer for said court until his term expires and his successor is appointed and qualifies, unless said chief judge is removed from office under the provisions of Section 98(e) of this Article in which event the County Council shall designate a successor chief judge.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1966.

Approved May 6, 1966.
