

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That Section 255(a) of Article 93 of the said Code (1965 Supplement), title "Testamentary Law," subtitle "Orphans' Court," be and it is hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

255.

(a) The judges of the orphans' courts of Baltimore City and the several counties (other than Montgomery County) [and Baltimore City] shall receive compensation as herein prescribed, said compensation to be paid monthly, except as provided.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That Sections 2-14 and 7-35 of the Montgomery County Code (1960 Edition), being Article 16 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland, title "Montgomery County," subtitles, respectively, "Administration" and "Courts," be and they are hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

Montgomery County Code

2-14.

The judges of the circuit court of the county [and the judges of the orphans' court for the county] in banc are hereby authorized and empowered by appropriate orders to provide and establish a five-day week for the employees of (a) the circuit court, [of] (b) the orphans' court, (c) the clerk of the circuit court and [of] (d) the register of wills for the county, respectively. The council, the county board of education, the Washington Suburban Sanitary Commission, department of liquor control, the board of supervisors of elections, the supervisor of assessments and the Maryland-National Capital Park and Planning Commission are hereby authorized and empowered by appropriate order or resolution to provide and establish a five-day week for the employees of their respective agencies and offices. Any other department, board or commission of the government of the county not included in the above-enumerated groups shall also have the power by appropriate order or resolution to provide and establish a five-day week for their employees. All of the above-mentioned officials and boards shall have the authority and power to provide and determine, in their discretion, the working hours for their respective employees.

7-35.

Any [one of the judges of the court shall have power to hold the court, at a stated time or adjournment, only for the purpose of adjourning; any two of them] Judge of the Circuit Court at the time sitting as the Orphans' Court shall have full power to do any act which the court is or shall be authorized by law to perform, and [any two of them] may hold a court on any day not named in an adjournment, on the application of any person having pressing business in such court; provided notice thereof be given to all, and in such case the register shall record that such notice has been given.