

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That this Act is hereby declared to be an emergency measure and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health and safety, and having been passed by a ye and nay vote supported by three-fifths of the members elected to each of the two Houses of the General Assembly of Maryland, the same shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved March 23, 1966.

CHAPTER 93

(House Bill 103)

AN ACT to authorize the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore to create a debt, and to issue and sell its certificates of indebtedness as evidence thereof, to an amount not exceeding three million dollars ($3,000,000.00), the proceeds derived from the sale of the certificates of indebtedness to be used to create and establish a fund to be known as the revolving design fund and such fund shall be used, with the approval of the Board of Estimates of the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, to pay any and all costs and expenses which may be incurred in connection with the preparation of preliminary studies and designs, and plans, specifications and other contract documents, for capital improvement projects in the capital improvement program of the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, as provided or contemplated by Section 2 of Article VI of the Charter of Baltimore City (1964 Revision); authorizing said municipality to establish, maintain and operate said fund and providing for a method which may be used to replenish and continue said fund in existence; authorizing said municipality to submit an ordinance or ordinances for said purpose to the legal voters of Baltimore City, and providing generally for the issuance and sale of said certificates of indebtedness.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That (a) The Mayor and City Council of Baltimore be and it is hereby authorized to create a debt, and to issue and sell its certificates of indebtedness (hereafter called "bonds") as evidence thereof, to an amount not exceeding Three Million Dollars ($3,000,000.00), the proceeds derived from the sale thereof to be used for the purposes hereinafter mentioned, but said debt shall not be created and said bonds shall not be issued, in whole or in part, unless an ordinance or ordinances of the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore providing for the issuance thereof shall be first submitted to the legal voters of Baltimore City at such time and place as may be fixed by said ordinance or ordinances and be approved by a majority of the votes cast at such time and place, all as required by Section 7 of Article XI of the Constitution of Maryland; and the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, in submitting any ordinance or ordinances for the issuance of said bonds, or any part thereof, to the legal voters of Baltimore City, may submit and resubmit the same at any municipal election as well as at any general election to be held in Baltimore City.

(b) The Mayor and City Council of Baltimore may submit by one ordinance, the whole of the debt authorized by this Act to the legal
