

quest the Governor of Maryland to appoint a special commission to give thought and consideration to these laws.

The laws presently applicable to the sale and consumption of alcoholic beverages in Worcester County stem from enactments made more than thirty years ago, as constantly revised since that time. They now are in need of a thoroughgoing study and consideration which could be given by a special commission appointed for this task; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Governor of Maryland is requested to appoint a special commission to study and report on the alcoholic beverage laws applicable in Worcester County; and be it further

Resolved, That on this commission, he is requested to appoint representatives of public and quasi public agencies and organizations in Worcester County, with a representative group of lay and professional members, and to appoint a chairman of the commission; and be it further

Resolved, That the commission when appointed, is requested to meet and organize promptly and to give complete study and consideration to all phases of the alcoholic beverage laws as they apply in Worcester County; and be it further

Resolved, That the commission is requested to submit its report and recommendations not later than January 1, 1967, to the members of the Worcester County Delegation in the General Assembly, the Board of County Commissioners, the Liquor Control Board, and the governing officials of each of the municipal corporations in Worcester County.

Approved May 6, 1966.

---

No. 64

(House Joint Resolution 60)

House Joint Resolution urging Congress to enact the "Wild Rivers Act" to preserve the natural beauty of certain rivers located in and adjacent to Maryland.

WHEREAS, A proposed Act is pending in Congress of the United States known as the "Wild Rivers Act"; and

WHEREAS, The proposed Act provides for the immediate designation of the Cacapon and Shenandoah Rivers in West Virginia, flowing into the Potomac River on Maryland's southernmost boundary, as "Wild Rivers"; and

WHEREAS, Five rivers located in Pennsylvania and the Youghio-gheny River in Garrett County, Maryland, are designated for consideration for future inclusion in the Wild River system, such designations to be made only after appropriate consultation with the Governors and officials of Pennsylvania and Maryland; and

WHEREAS, These rivers in West Virginia, Pennsylvania, and Maryland are within easy travel range of Marylanders who may wish to