

645E. If after judgment, a review is sought by the petitioner within thirty (30) days and the Court of Appeals or the Court of Special Appeals grants leave to appeal pursuant to Section 4 645-I of this Article and [that court] either of said Courts finds that the petitioner is unable to pay the costs of the review, [the Court] said Courts shall order that all necessary costs and expenses incident thereto, including all court costs, stenographic services, and printing, be paid by the political subdivision in which the judgment is rendered.

645-I. Any person, including the Attorney General of Maryland or the State's attorney for Baltimore City or any county, as the case may be, aggrieved by the order of the court or judge passed in accordance with this subtitle, may within thirty (30) days after the passage of said order apply to the Court of Appeals of Maryland for leave to prosecute an appeal therefrom [.] in cases where the applicant is incarcerated under sentence of death, and may within thirty (30) days after the passage of said order apply to the Court of Special Appeals for leave to prosecute an appeal therefrom in all other cases. Said application for leave to prosecute an appeal shall be in such form as [the Court of Appeals] said appellate Courts may, by [its] their rules, prescribe, and in the event that the Attorney General or the State's attorney shall forthwith state his intention to file such application for an appeal, the order may be stayed, but the judge may, in his discretion, admit the petitioner to bail for his appearance when required. If the application to prosecute such appeal shall be granted, the procedure thereafter shall be in conformity with the rules of [the Court of Appeals] said appellate Courts and the [Court] Courts may affirm, reverse or modify the order appealed from, or [it] they may remand the case for further proceedings, but if said application is denied, the order sought to be reviewed shall thereby become final. ~~to the same extent and with the same effect as if said order had been affirmed on appeal.~~

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That Sections 11 and 11A of Article 31B of the said Code (1965 Supplement), title and subtitle "Defective Delinquents", be and they are hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, and all to read as follows:

Article 31B

11. From any court order issued under the provisions of Section 9, or of Section 10, within thirty (30) days after the passage of the order, application may be made to the [Court of Appeals] Court of Special Appeals for leave to appeal from the order. The application for leave to appeal shall be in such form as the [Court of Appeals] Court of Special Appeals may, by its rules, prescribe. If the Attorney General or the State's attorney shall state an intention to file an application for leave to appeal, the order may be stayed. If the application for leave to appeal is granted, the procedure for appeal shall conform with the rules of the [Court of Appeals] Court of Special Appeals. On appeal, the Court may affirm, reverse or modify the order appealed, or it may remand the case for further proceedings. If the application for leave to appeal is denied, the order sought to be reviewed shall become final [to the same extent and with the same effect as if the order had been affirmed on appeal].

11A. Whenever a defendant desires to file an application for leave to appeal in order to appeal as provided in Section 11, and is unable
