

find. Thereafter the Commissioners shall not proceed further under the ordinance of intention, and the proceeding is terminated. If the proceeding is terminated by a majority protest, no subsequent proceeding under this ordinance for the formation of the same, or substantially the same, district shall be commenced within six (6) months thereafter, except upon a petition signed by the owners of a majority in area of the taxable land in the district. If the owners of more than one-half of the area of the property included within the district and subject to assessment have not made written objections or protests to the thing proposed to be done as an entirety, the Commissioners may so find orally or otherwise and may proceed with the hearing. The hearing may be continued from time to time by order entered on the minutes.

34R.

At the hearing the Commissioners may by an affirmative vote of two-thirds of its members order changes in the proposed work or the proposed boundaries of the district by the elimination of any portion thereof which will not in its opinion be benefited by the work proposed to be done.

If the Commissioners propose a change in the boundaries to include additional land in the district, said Commissioners shall adopt a resolution briefly describing the change proposed to be made and giving notice of the time and place when and where any interested person may object to such change. The Administrative Assistant shall mail a copy of a notice of intention to do so to each person described in Section 34M hereof included in the area proposed to be added within the time and in the manner set forth in said Section 34M. The notice shall describe the proposed change and specify the time for hearing objections. The notice shall also be published once in the time and manner provided for in Section 34L hereof.

If the boundaries are changed, objections or protests made by owners of land excluded by the change shall not be counted in computing a majority protest, but written objections or protests to the things proposed to be done as an entirety made by owners of the remaining assessable land in the district, including assessable land added by a change, and filed with the Administrative Assistant not later than the time set for hearing objections to the proposed change, shall be included in computing a majority protest.

Except in the case of a majority protest, the Commissioners may sustain or deny any or all objections or protests and its determination is final. Such determination shall be entered upon the minutes. If the protests are denied or if no protests are filed, immediately thereupon the Commissioners shall acquire jurisdiction to form the district and to order the work, as proposed or as changed, to be done and to proceed further in accordance with the provisions of this subheading. In the event there is a majority protest against any change proposed as provided for in Section 34R hereof, no such change shall be ordered by the Commissioners.
