

condition and provided, further, that if the person making the report believes or has reason to believe that immediate protection of the child or children is necessary to insure the physical safety or welfare of the child or children involved, then in such event, the matter shall also be reported to the appropriate law enforcement agency. The written reports required to be made shall be made in all cases to the local department of welfare and to the local state's attorney.

The oral and written reports shall contain the following information, or as much thereof as the person making the report shall be able in the circumstances to furnish:

(1) The names and home address or addresses of the child or children and the parent or other persons responsible for the care of the child or children in question;

(2) The present whereabouts of the child or children if not the same as the home address or addresses;

(3) The age or ages of the child or children;

(4) The nature and extent of the injuries or injury of the child or children in question, including any evidence or information available to the person or agency rendering the report of previous injury or injuries possibly resulting from malicious mistreatment or beating;

(5) All such other information available to the reporter which would be of aid in establishing the cause of the injuries and the identity of the person or persons responsible therefor.

A report made by anyone other than a health practitioner, education or welfare worker, or law enforcement officer may be either written or oral, or both, and such reports shall be regarded as a report within the provisions of this Act, whether or not the report contains all of the required information provided for in this subsection. Such reports by private persons or agencies other than the local department of welfare shall be promptly referred by the receiving agency to the local department of welfare. The local department of welfare shall promptly interview the private party who has made a report of possible violations of the provisions of this Act, to determine if there is probable cause to believe that the child or children in question, has in fact sustained physical injury as a result of abuse, as by malicious beating, striking or other such cruel or inhumane treatment. If the local department of welfare determines that there is probable cause to so believe that a violation of this Act has been committed, then the local department of welfare shall proceed with the investigation required under Section (e) hereof.

(e) The local department of welfare shall make a thorough investigation promptly upon receiving a report of probable violation of this Act, and the primary purpose of the investigation shall be the protection of the welfare of the child or children. The investigation shall include a determination of the nature, extent and cause or causes of the injuries, the identity of the person or persons responsible therefor, the name, age and condition of other children in the same household, an evaluation of the parents and the home environment, and all other facts or matters found to be pertinent. The local department of welfare shall render a complete written report of its findings to the local state's attorney within five (5) working days of the completion of the investigation, which shall be within ten (10)
