CHAPTER 266

(Senate Bill 346)

AN ACT to add a new Section 102A to Article 52 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1964 Replacement Volume), title "Justices of the Peace", subtitle "Trial Magistrates System", to follow immediately after Section 102 thereof, providing for the appointment of a justice of the peace to act as a committing magistrate in Worcester County, and relating generally to the appointment, duties, jurisdiction, powers and compensation of this committing magistrate.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That a new Section 102A be and it is hereby added to Article 52 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1964 Replacement Volume), title "Justices of the Peace", subtitle "Trial Magistrates System", to follow immediately after Section 102 thereof, and to read as follows:

102A. In addition to other justices of the peace authorized to be appointed under other provisions of this Article, the Governor, with the advice and consent of the Senate, shall appoint one justice of the peace for Worcester County who shall act as a committing magistrate. He shall be on duty in Ocean City each night from May 1 to September 30 in each year, inclusive, between the hours of 10 o'clock p.m. and 4 o'clock a.m. He has and may exercise all the civil and criminal jurisdiction conferred upon other justices of the peace in Worcester County, except that he has no jurisdiction to try cases. He has power to take recognizance for the appearance of any accused before the trial magistrate. He shall receive compensation at the rate of two thousand dollars ($2,000.) each year.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1966.

Approved April 29, 1966.
