CHAPTER 325
(House Bill 42)

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact, with amendments, Section 45 of Article 40 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1965 Replacement Volume), title "General Assembly," subtitle "Commission on Judicial Disabilities," correcting an error in the laws relating to the Commission on Judicial Disabilities.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland. That Section 45 of Article 40 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1965 Replacement Volume), title "General Assembly," subtitle "Commission on Judicial Disabilities," be and it is hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, and to read as follows:

45.

For the purpose of any investigation or any proceeding under Section 4B of Article IV of the Constitution of this State:

(a) The Commission on Judicial Disabilities and the General Assembly are empowered to administer oaths and affirmations, subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance, take evidence and require the production of any books, papers, correspondence, memoranda, contracts, agreements, other records or tangible things which the Commission or the General Assembly finds relevant or material to the inquiry or proceedings. Oaths and affirmations may be administered by, and subpoena may be issued by, any member of the Commission [of] or any officer of the General Assembly.

(b) In case of contumacy by, or refusal to obey a subpoena issued to, any person, by the Commission, the Commission may invoke the aid of the circuit court for the county (or of the Superior Court of Baltimore City) where such person resides or carried on business or is found, in requiring the attendance of witnesses and the production of records. Such court may issue an order requiring such person to appear before the Commission, and there to produce records, if so ordered. Any failure to obey such order of the court may be punished by such court as a contempt thereof. All process in any such case may be served wherever such person is found.

(c) Contumacy by, or refusal to obey a subpoena issued to, any person, by the General Assembly, may be punishable by the circuit court for a county (or by the Superior Court of Baltimore City), upon a complaint of the General Assembly invoked in the same manner as in subsection (b) of this section.
