CHAPTER 363

(House Bill 1147)

AN ACT to establish a study commission to study the feasibility and desirability of a People's Court for Frederick County.

WHEREAS, The establishment of a People's Court has been found a useful method for expediting and simplifying the administration of justice, particularly as regards small claims and relatively minor traffic and criminal offenses, in several counties of this State, and

WHEREAS, Frederick County, by reason of its increasing population is commencing to be confronted by many of the problems of the larger, suburban oriented counties, particularly as regards the administration of justice, now, therefore,

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That a study commission to study the feasibility and desirability of establishing a People's Court in Frederick County be and it is hereby established.

A. The study commission shall consist of five members not more than three of whom shall be members of the Frederick County Bar Association, who shall serve without compensation. They shall be nominated by the Frederick County Bar Association and approved by the judges of the circuit court of the county.

B. The study commission shall prepare a report of its findings and submit the same to the 1967 Session of the General Assembly.

C. The necessary expenses incurred by the study commission shall be paid by the County Commissioners of Frederick County out of the General Funds of the County.
