CHAPTER 41

(Senate Bill 117)

AN ACT to add a new Section 7A to Article 15A of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1957 Edition), title "Budget and Procurement", subtitle "Budget Administration", said new Section to follow immediately after Section 7 thereof, providing for the disposition of premiums received from the sale of the State's general obligation bonds.

WHEREAS, it has been the long standing policy of the Comptroller of the Treasury to credit premiums received as part of the proceeds from the sale of any of the State's general obligation bonds to a Premium and Expense Account established for each such bond issue, and to transfer the same to the Annuity Bond Fund Reserve Account in order to reduce the outstanding bonded indebtedness of the State after such bonds have been issued, and all expenses in connection therewith charged on a pro rata basis to such Premium and Expense Accounts, now, therefore,

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That a new Section 7A be and it is hereby added to Article 15A of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1957 Edition), title "Budget and Procurement", subtitle "Budget Administration", said new Section to follow immediately after Section 7 thereof and to read as follows:

7A.

That part of the proceeds of the sale of any of the State's general obligation bonds which represents premiums earned as a result of such sale shall be deposited in a Premium and Expense Account established by the Comptroller of the Treasury for each such bond account. Expenses of the sale of any such general obligation bonds shall be charged to each such Premium and Expense Account on a pro rata basis. After such bonds have been issued, and all expenses of sale paid, the remainder, if any, shall be transferred to the Annuity Bond Fund Reserve Account and applied to reducing the outstanding bonded indebtedness of the State.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1966.

Approved March 23, 1966.
