285.

The following acts, the failure to act as hereinafter set forth, and the causing of any such act or failure are hereby declared unlawful:

The delivery of a barbiturate, except as provided in Section 286 (b), unless:

(1) Such barbiturate is delivered by a pharmacist upon a prescription, and therefore is affixed to the immediate container in which such drug is delivered a label bearing (A) the name and address of the owner of the establishment from which such drug was delivered; (B) the date on which the prescription for such drug was filled; (C) the number of such prescription as filed in the prescription files of the pharmacist who filled such prescription; (D) the name of the practitioner who prescribed such drugs; (E) the name and address of the patient, if contained in the prescription; and if such drug was prescribed for an animal, a statement showing the species of the animal; and (F) the directions for the use of the drug as contained in the prescription; or

(2) The refilling of any prescription for a barbiturate unless and as designated on the original prescription or by oral authorization by the practitioner, which shall be reduced immediately to writing, and filed by the pharmacist; or

(3) The delivery of any prescription for a barbiturate unless the pharmacist who filled such prescription files and retains it as required by Section 287(c); or

(4) [The possession of a barbiturate by any person, unless such person obtained such drug or prescription by a practitioner; or (5)] The refusal to make available and to accord full opportunity to check and record or file, as required by Section 287(e); or [(6)]

(5) The failure to keep records as required by Section 287; or [(7)]

(6) The using of any person to his own advantage; or revealing, other than to an officer or employee of the State Department of Health, or to a court when relevant in a judicial proceeding under this subtitle, any information required under the authority of Section 287(e), concerning methods or processes which as a trade secret are entitled to protection.
