

(9) No person shall engage in the business of selling pistols or revolvers whose Pistol and Revolver Dealer's License has been revoked, unless such revocation has been subsequently withdrawn by the Superintendent of the Maryland State Police and or his duly authorized agent or agents or overruled by the action of the courts pursuant to subsection 10 below.

(10) Any person aggrieved by the action of the Superintendent of the Maryland State Police and or his duly authorized agent or agents may appeal the revocation of his or her Pistol and Revolver Dealer's License to the Circuit Court of the county wherein the licensee's place of business is conducted or to the Baltimore City Court, if the licensee's place of business is conducted within the limits of Baltimore City. Such appeal must be filed not later than thirty days from the date written notice of revocation to the licensee was mailed by the said Superintendent and or his duly authorized agent or agents. The court wherein an appeal is properly and timely filed shall affirm or reverse the revocation by the said Superintendent and or his duly authorized agent or agents, depending upon whether it finds that any false information or statements were supplied or made in an Application required by this section, the licensee has been convicted of a crime of violence, in this State or elsewhere, or of any of the provisions of this subtitle, or is a fugitive from justice, or is an habitual drunkard, or is addicted to the use of drugs, or has spent more than thirty consecutive days in any medical institution for treatment of a mental disorder or disorders and has failed to produce a physician's certificate, issued within thirty days prior to being notified by the said Superintendent and or his duly authorized agent or agents of the intended revocation, certifying that the licensee is capable of possessing a pistol or revolver without undue danger to himself or herself, or to others. A further appeal to the Court of Appeals may be prosecuted by either the Superintendent of the Maryland State Police or the licensee from the decision reached by the Circuit Court or Baltimore City Court in accordance with this subsection.

ANY PROSPECTIVE DEALER AGGRIEVED BY THE ACTION OF THE STATE POLICE MAY REQUEST A HEARING BY WRITING TO THE SUPERINTENDENT OF STATE POLICE, WHO SHALL GRANT THE HEARING WITHIN FIFTEEN DAYS OF THE REQUEST IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE ADMINISTRATIVE AGENCY REGULATIONS. A SUSPENSION OR REVOCATION SHALL NOT TAKE EFFECT WHILE AN APPEAL IS PENDING.

(11) Any person who engages in the business of selling pistols or revolvers in violation of this section or who knowingly gives any false information or makes any material misstatement in an Application required by this section shall upon conviction thereof be subject to the penalties hereinafter provided in section 448 of this subtitle. Each day on which pistols or revolvers are unlawfully sold or offered for sale shall be considered a separate offense.
